ROTARY CLUB OF EAST MAITLAND

COOKING WITH LYDIA

A social change from the regular club meetings at the George Tavern, demonstrating the fun element of RCEM.

LYDIA TSENG, YEP student from Taiwan, demonstrated the preparation and cooking of Taiwanese-style Chinese dumplings in the East Maitland Uniting Church Hall.

Thanks to the provision of ingredients by Liz Holle, Lydia demonstrated methods to prepare them, so members could cut and chop, and keep / look busy.

Lydia demonstrated how to place the contents of the dumplings onto the wrapper and then fold and seal them, ready for cooking.

Several hundred dumplings later, they were ready to be cooked, and then enjoyed, with appropriate salads and sauces to accompany them. Everyone enjoyed a very tasty meal. Louise Shirvington thanked Lydia for sharing some of her culture with members, as well as Liz, for all her preparations.

Rotary Clubs of Maitland Golf Day Fundraiser

Sunday 23 March

A successful and profitable day, despite early rain. Thanks for assistance with erection of marquees, selling of drinks etc.

The projected proceeds of $21,000 was achieved, supporting Maitland HealthStays.

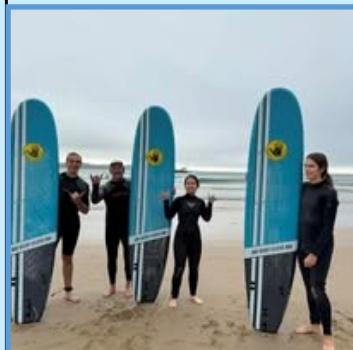

YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Taylor, Lydia and Koa (YEP Hawaii, hosted by RC Morisset) kicked off the adventure with a behind the scenes tour of Newcastle's last remaining surfboard manufacturing shop, where they caught a glimpse of the city's surf culture. Next up a pizza party and board games night had everyone in stitches. Then the real action began on Saturday morning, when they hit the waves at One Mile Beach for a surfing lesson. To burn up any extra energy they then climbed Tomaree Head for a scenic view of the Port Stephens area. The excitement continued with a round of 10 pin bowling and a birthday bash for Taylor's 18th birthday at Dullboys.

The piece de resistance was Sunday morning's early morning wake up call to volunteer at the combined Rotary Clubs of Maitland Golf Day Fundraiser for Maitland Hospital HealthStays.

A huge thanks to everyone who made this weekend such a memorable experience for our exchange students Taylor Zalecki (Poland), Lydia Tseng (Taiwan) and Koa Worthe (Hawaii). (Facebook)
